The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961

- Dowry is defined in the Act as any property or valuable security given or agreed to be given either directly or indirectly by one party to the other party to the marriage.
- By the parents of either party to a marriage or by any other person, to either party to the marriage or to any other person at or before or any time after the marriage in connection with the marriage of the said parties.
- The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1962 outlawed giving or receiving dowry and made it a punishable offence. The imprisonment would be for a term which shall not be less than five years and a fine.
