Department of Library and Information Centre

Report for the Academic Year 2024-2025

The Department of Library and Information Centre organized a series of activities during the academic year 2024–2025 to promote reading habits, enhance information literacy, and encourage effective utilization of library resources. The details are as follows:

- 1. Library Induction Program: Conducted on 16th July 2024, this session introduced first-year students to the available facilities, resources, and services. It helped them understand how to access and make the best use of library materials for their academic growth.
- 2. National Librarians' Day Celebration: Observed on 12th August 2024, the department celebrated the occasion by visiting Sannihitha – A Caring Centre for Girl Children and the Government Primary School, Parklane, Secunderabad. Books and stationery were donated to encourage reading and support children's education.
- 3. National Library Week: As part of the celebration, a Book Fair was organized on 18th November 2024 to cultivate reading interest and critical thinking among students and faculty. The event provided a platform to explore a wide range of books and literary materials.
- 4. Interaction with The WEEK Magazine: Held on 9th January 2025, this interactive session enabled students to gain insights into news compilation, information sourcing, and media literacy. It helped broaden their understanding of journalism and current affairs.
- 5. User Awareness Program on NDL: On 24th February 2025, an awareness session on the National Digital Library (NDL) was organized to familiarize students with digital learning resources. The activity-based approach encouraged participants to explore NDL as an academic and research tool.
- 6. Best Library User Award: To motivate maximum and effective use of library facilities, the Best Library User Award is presented annually to both students and faculty members who demonstrate exemplary engagement with library services. The awardees for the year are:
  - a. Faculty: Mrs. Prasanna Lakshmi, BBA Department
  - b. Student: Tangtoor Sahithi, BBA III Yr.
