Gesto Club

2025-2026

The Gesto Club of the Department of Business Management organized a series of student-centric activities to enhance leadership, communication, analytical thinking, and teamwork among students. A Debate Competition conducted on 11th September 2025 engaged BBA II Year students in discussions on contemporary business and social issues, strengthening critical thinking and public speaking skills. The Investiture Ceremony and March Past of All Clubs held on 12th September 2025 formally inducted student leaders and members, promoting responsibility, discipline, and leadership values. Further, a Panel Discussion organized on 19th September 2025 provided students with a platform to analyze and discuss global and social issues, encouraging research, collaboration, and effective communication.

These activities created an engaging learning environment that encouraged students to express ideas confidently, develop decision-making abilities, and actively participate in institutional initiatives. The events also strengthened interpersonal skills, fostered teamwork, and contributed to the overall holistic development of students through experiential learning and active involvement.
